<td>independent schools are to be handled as a District. Transferability of units was discussed (Section A on agreement). Classes on campus will go through the Civic Center standard booking process with a separate contract. The members provided input on suggested changes to the agreement. Changes included taking out the word “transfer” and use “degree applicable” units; add the abbreviation ADT to the column that says AA/AS. The document will be vetted with the Articulation Officers prior to moving forward. Director Post indicated he would advise TCSPP of the modifications, and if they concur with the language, would forward the articulation agreement to Linda Kama’ila and Kim Hoffmans.</td>
