SUBJECT: AMENDMENT OF PERSONNEL COMMISSION RULE 292 – INITIAL APPOINTMENT
AND PERSONNEL COMMISSION RULE 295 – PROMOTION

EXPLANATION:

Commission staff recommends that Personnel Commission Rule 292 – Initial Appointment be revised to limit the extent to which advanced step placement may be afforded to new classified employees. Currently, new classified employees may receive advanced step placement up to step seven of the salary range based on additional qualifying education and experience. The rule does not require that consideration be given to the previous salary of the new employee.

Given that the intent of the rule is to provide for salary placement flexibility in the event advanced step placement is necessary to recruit candidates whose current salary is at or above step one of the salary range, consideration should be given to the employees previous salary in determining to what extent advanced step placement is appropriate. Therefore, it is recommended that advanced step placement be limited to a maximum 18% increase over the employee’s salary in the most recent related position. Commission staff and District administration believes this limit is sufficient for recruiting new employees in a fiscally-responsible manner.

Commission staff also recommends that Personnel Commission Rule 295 – Promotion be revised in conjunction with the revision to PC Rule 292 to provide for equitable treatment of District employees who promote into higher-level classifications.

The rule amendments are supported by the Vice Chancellor, Human Resources.

AMENDMENTS:
