With an educational background in sociology, I am familiar and comfortable with working in teams and problem-solving. From working as student staff at Moorpark's Counseling Office, to interning for a local Congresswoman, I have learned how to communicate with people in an efficient way. I am a relentless student and activist which makes me an ideal candidate for this position.

As a dedicated student and advocate for higher education, it is my obligation to serve my peers by representing them and fighting for their interests and concerns. I want to extend more scholarship opportunities for students in social science, arts and humanities majors, as well as find ways to enrich our STEM programs. If elected, I would be a liaison between students and faculty to implement important changes for the betterment of all students' academic life at Moorpark College.
