This form is for dependent students who do not meet the federal criteria for "independent" status but wish to have their unique circumstances reviewed in order to be considered an independent student for financial aid purposes. Students who are estranged from their parents due to extreme circumstances (e.g., child abuse, abandonment, family alcoholism or drug abuse, etc.) which can be documented by an objective third party (e.g., pastor, high school or college counselor, a social service agency official, etc.) may qualify for this professional judgment treatment. Complete and submit this form along with the required documentation to the Financial Aid Office. After your appeal is reviewed, the Financial Aid Office will notify you in writing of the decision.
