8.5 Parental Leave.

Faculty members are eligible for leaves of absence when said absence is due to pregnancy, convalescence from childbirth, the birth of a child, or placement of a child in connection with the adoption or foster care of the child by the faculty member.

Any faculty member who is required to absent herself from her duties due to pregnancy, convalescence from childbirth, the birth of a child, or placement of a child in connection with the adoption or foster care of the child shall be granted parental leave without loss of pay for a period not to exceed 21 calendar days. Such leave shall be utilized within the first three (3) months following childbirth or the placement of a child in connection with the adoption or foster care in the home and be used in one 21 calendar days' block of time.

Any faculty member who is required to absent himself from his duties because of birth of a child, or placement of a child in connection with adoption or foster care shall be granted parental leave without loss of pay for a period not to exceed 21 calendar days. Such leave shall be utilized within the first three (3) months following childbirth or the placement of an adopted child or a foster child in the home and be used in one 21 calendar days' block of time.

Faculty members who have exhausted all available sick leave, including all accumulated sick leave, and continue to be absent due to pregnancy, convalescence from childbirth, the birth of a child, or placement of a child in connection with the adoption or foster care of the child by the faculty member may be eligible for up to 12 weeks of leave paid at no less than 50% of his or her regular salary per California Education Code section 87780.1. The 12-workweek period shall be reduced by any period of sick leave, including accumulated sick leave, taken during a period of parental leave. A faculty member shall not be provided more than one 12-workweek period for parental leave during any 12-month period. Parental leave taken pursuant to this section shall run concurrently with parental leave taken under the California Family Rights Act.

Nothing in this Article shall be construed so as to deprive any faculty member of such leave rights under the other provisions of this Agreement for absence due to illness or injury resulting from pregnancy.
