VCCCD First-Time Student Term-to-Term Retention (Persistence) Rates

First-Time Students are considered to have been retained in their course of study if they received any transcript notation in their first fall term enrollment and then received any transcript notation in the subsequent spring semester and then subsequent fall semester (previously known as persistence), even if that subsequent semester enrollment was in a different college within VCCCD. First-Time Students include high school graduates even if they attended VCCCD while concurrently enrolled in high school.

Student Success Scorecard Degree/Certificate/Transfer Outcomes by College

Percentage of first-time college students seeking a degree, certificate and/or transfer-seeking tracked for six years who completed a degree, certificate or transfer-related outcome.

NOTE: The California Community Colleges Student Success Scorecard presents outcomes data for students who began their educational journey over six years ago:

- The 2007-08 cohort was expected to complete their outcomes by the 2012-13 academic year
- The 2008-09 cohort was expected to complete their outcomes by the 2013-14 academic year
- The 2009-10 cohort was expected to complete their outcomes by the 2014-15 academic year

These student populations did not have the opportunity to benefit from the recent SSP and Student Equity interventions that were implemented in 2015.
