EXAMPLES OF EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES AND RECOMMENDED DOCUMENTATION

| Reason for Appeal | Recommended Documentation |
|--|--|
| Medical Condition or Illness | Doctor's note (on letterhead) and/or hospital records |
| Death of an immediate relative | Obituary notice and/or death certificate AND explain the relationship between the student and the deceased |
| Divorce or separation | Divorce decree, signed letter from attorney (on letterhead), signed statement from counselor or therapist |
| Military Service | Copy of the military orders, a DD-214 showing dates of service, or a letter from the commanding officer describing the dates and duration of service |
| Illness, injury, or medical condition of a family member that required care | Provide documentation from a health care professional. Explain the relationship between the student and the family member. |
| Change in academic major or exceeded timeframe | Detailed explanation disclosing reasons for change in major and reasons for exceeding the maximum units allowed. |
| Other similar situations that affected academic performance that were beyond the student's control | Any documents that would help verify the student's circumstances. Should include date and duration. |

PLEASE NOTE: This list is not all inclusive; there may be other types of documentation that are acceptable. Be sure the dates of the documentation coincide with the dates of attendance at VCCCD and the terms that have impacted academic performance. Submitting an appeal with supporting documentation does not guarantee an appeal will be approved.

The following situations are not considered extenuating circumstances:

- ✓ Lack of knowledge or understanding of the Satisfactory Academic Progress standards.
- ✓ Medical appeals for illness or hospitalization for dates that do not correspond to the semester(s) of substandard progress.
- ✓ Recurring or similarly recurring life circumstances affecting your academic ability to graduate within a reasonable timeframe.
- ✓ The state of being young and irresponsible.
- ✓ Voluntary employment overtime.
- ✓ Having good intentions or you tried your hardest to do well in school.
- ✓ Statements of financial need. Financial need is already assumed.
