MOORPARK COLLEGE OXNARD COLLEGE VENTURA COLLEGE VC EAST CAMPUS

Ventura County Community College District (VCCCD) is a public community college district serving residents throughout Ventura County. VCCCD's three colleges – Moorpark College, Oxnard College, and Ventura College – offer programs for transfer to four-year colleges and universities; career technical training; basic skills instruction; as well as community service, economic development, and continuing education for cultural growth, life enrichment, and skills improvement. In fall 2018, VCCCD served 32,721 students. The colleges are accredited by the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, an institutional accrediting body recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation and the U.S. Department of Education.

The District Administrative Center, centrally located in Camarillo, oversees administrative functions and provides leadership and services to the three colleges in support of VCCCD's mission.

THE VCCCD LEADERSHIP

VCCCD is governed by a five-member locally elected Board of Trustees and a student Board member. The five Trustees are elected in even-numbered years to four-year terms by the voters of Ventura County. The Board of Trustees is responsible for adopting policies that govern the business of the District and its colleges. The Chancellor, Dr. Greg Gillespie, is the District's Chief Executive Officer and has the responsibility of carrying out policies approved by the Board of Trustees. The Board meets regularly on the second Tuesday of each month at the District Administrative Center in Camarillo, California, unless otherwise posted at www.vcccd.edu.

CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGES

The California Community Colleges is a system of two-year public institutions comprised of 115 colleges statewide organized into 72 districts. The largest system of higher education in the nation, the California community colleges serve more than 2.3 million students. The community colleges play an important role in ensuring that all California residents have access to quality higher education.

Community colleges offer low-cost, high quality collegiate courses to all students who can benefit from instruction offered. Enrollment fees are $46 per unit. Financial assistance is available for students who need help in meeting their educational costs. Resident enrollment fees at a community college are approximately $1,294 for one year, compared to $5,742 at California State University (CSU)(2017/18) and an estimated average cost of $13,900 at University of California (UC) (2017/18).

The Ventura County Community College District (District) prohibits all forms of harassment and discrimination based on any of the following statuses: race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, or sexual orientation of any person, or on the basis of these perceived characteristics or based on the association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics. The District will enforce all state and federal laws and District policy prohibiting harassment and discrimination.
