VC EAST CAMPUS

Ventura County Community College District (VCCCD) is a public community college district serving residents throughout Ventura County. VCCCD's three colleges — Moorpark College, Oxnard College, and Ventura College — offer programs for transfer to four-year colleges and universities; career training; basic skills instruction; as well as community service, economic development partnerships, and continuing education for cultural growth, life enrichment, and skills improvement. In fall 2020, VCCCD served 29,948 students. The colleges are accredited by the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, an institutional accrediting body recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation and the U.S. Department of Education.

The District Administrative Center, centrally located in Camarillo, oversees administrative functions and provides leadership and services to the three colleges in support of VCCCD's mission.

VCCCD LEADERSHIP

VCCCD is governed by a five-member locally elected Board of Trustees and a student Board member. The five Trustees are elected in even-numbered years by voters in Ventura County and each serve four-year terms. The Board of Trustees is responsible for adopting policies that govern the business of the District and its colleges. The Board of Trustees—through a lens of diversity, equity, and inclusion—is guided by three strategic goals:

1. Increase access and student success.
2. Actively support workforce and economic development in Ventura County through partnerships and relevant programs and pathways leading from education to careers.
3. Maintain sustainable management of all organizational resources aligned with established priorities and implemented with transparency and accountability.

CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGES

The California Community Colleges is a system of two-year public institutions comprised of 116 colleges statewide organized into 73 districts. The largest system of higher education in the nation, the California community colleges serve more than 2.1 million students. The community colleges play an important role in ensuring that all California residents have access to quality higher education.

Community colleges offer low-cost, high quality collegiate courses to all students who can benefit from instruction offered. Enrollment fees are $46 per unit. Financial assistance is available for students who need help in meeting their educational costs. Resident enrollment fees at a community college are approximately $1,294 for one year, compared to $5,752 at California State University (CSU)(2021/22) and an estimated average cost of $12,570 at University of California (UC) (2020/21).
